

Shipbroker for Chartering of Containerships

We are presently looking for a talented and hardworking person, who can work independently as well as in a team, in serving both new and existing good clients within the container-ships industry.

The right candidate should have very strong motivation and friendly communication skills together with an ambitious personal drive and own initiative.

Enthusiasm and the will to 'achieve' performance, might substitute lack of experience, but candidates with at least basic Chartering knowledge (University Studies, Bimco Courses etc.) will be preferred.

We can offer a very good working environment in a small highly motivated team, with a competitive remuneration package.

Please send on a strictly P & C basis your full written application with CV to Thøger Bering via Email:
